About This Game

Welcome to the ancient North, once the cradle of culture and peace, but is now corrupted by magic and inhabited by nasty bandits sowing destruction in airships.

Choose to be a vicious Buccaneer or an infamous Viking and take a glider to the skies. Your goal is to drop enemy vessels and secure dominance of the ancient North. Fire cannons, help others, board enemy ships or be the captain – whatever it takes to get your enemies out of the way. The success, as well as the bitter defeat, is solely dependent on how well you co-operate with your crew mates.

Finding the right kind of battle strategy is not self-evident in the merciless winds and twisted magic of the North...

I want more GNOG !!

. Furious Angels is a Shoot 'Em Up game that revolves around you as a little spaceship thing, and you have to shoot other bombers, jets, etc. If you like games like DEEP SPACE WAIFU, but without the removing the chicks' clothes option, this game could be for you. If you like DIFFICULT games, this is for you. This game can be difficult at times and by that I mean ALL THE TIME. This is also a good time-killer, if you don't have any time to waste productively, and you don't want to play a better video game. I guess you could say I recommend this game.. An awesome WW2 Strategy Game! Played it as a Kid, still funny. But very, very difficult. But its worth a try!. I'm not a football guy but this is okey to play if you are bored! And it's F2P so why not test it :). I've always admired the look of good graffiti, but never had the inclination or opportunity to try my hand at it in real life.

I consider myself something of an artist, and in the past I've mostly worked digitally, using a Wacom tablet and various digital art programs.

I've never painted with a spraycan before, so I can't speak on how this game holds up versus reality, but I can say that it feels really good to me. We've got pressure control on the trigger, and then of course there's the distance and angle that you hold the can relative to the wall.

To me it feels like a pretty accurate simulation, and I find it a lot of fun to use.

The game provides you with a big collection of pre-defined colours, or you can use various colour wheels and palettes to select exactly the colour you want.

There are a variety of different spray caps that you can switch between for different spray dynamics.

I've found that NY Fat Cap is my favourite general purpose one, but I do switch over to Featherduster when I want to do subtle shading, Thin Cap for small details, and Cyclopes when I want to get nice neat circles.

Right from the start in the first hour or so I found myself producing art that I felt proud of, and which looked like that "good graffiti" I've always admired. I can't guarantee that everything you paint will turn out amazing, but from what I can see it provides a very good simulation platform for you to have a go of spray painting, and enough depth to let you create beautiful art if you're willing to put the time into it.

I've had trouble connecting with friends in multiplayer sometimes, but with perseverance we've managed to get together and have a lot of fun collaborating. Art with friends is always something I enjoy, so I'm glad this game supports that.. waste of money. The only thing I can say in the favor of this game is at least I didn't have to pay for it. My god this is ♥♥♥ing terrible in ALL respects. There is NOTHING good about this.. Fun game...reminded me of the early monkey island game. Need a picture of dogs playing poker :)

As far as games go it's average, but for a Nancy Drew game it's great, a fairly good River Hights map which gives you the feeling it's bigger than it is. Sweet graphics as well. An issue I noticed was though on the map, shops like the ice cream place, were by themselves, but when you visit them, they're on a street full of shops. O.o wat?. I like this game quite a bit. The shooting in space element is great. I love the option to target with the headset.. I love these American shunting locos.. This game is pretty horrid, but I got it for free and it came with Steam cards.

Buy it on sale, for those sweet, sweet Steam cards.

. Played the first couple episodes and the game seems to be fine so far.

I really like most features UI is nice and the levels are set up well.

As a man who dates, I feel like some of the answers are too obvious and may not mess you up so it's either that I'm either super smooth or the game is somehow too easy for me! but I don't have much time into so far but I feel like any negative review is kinda bad the fact that this game has much to offer and for the low price that it's currently at, I mean why even complain about this game just try it out for yourself, as I also don't see why it would be called awkward as many of the choices are gonna be awkward especially if you did them in real life, I also feel that I have learned and that it may improve social skills with other individuals and females in real life. but I say go for it nice game and very interactive!. Amazing game, may be 8-bit but will still give you a scare at certain times, haven't completed it yet but getting there. Too also add, now every corner I look I brace for something being there, IRL and any game XD.. It doesn't work with any controllers..... Like every other Pop Cap game, "match x color to y color", with inconsistent shallow gameplay to boot. I realize this is supposed to be a thoughtless time killer, but honestly it gets old in like 20 minutes.. A travesty of a port.

The PS3 original was released ten years ago. It was and still is a classic. Unfortunately, Annapurna dropped the ball with this shoddy conversion plagued with a multitude of issues.

First of all, the technical analysis.

The audio is downright glitchy. The sound effects (like collecting petals) are full of clicks and pops. The elaborate acoustic effects of the PS3 version (like the music being faded and muffled while standing still) have been entirely removed, killing the immersion. Here, the music always plays at full volume. Sometimes the audio doesn't work at all when launching the game.

Also, either the cutscenes introducing each chapter have been removed (maybe because of their lower resolution) or they don't play at all on my machine, I can't tell. All I get is a black screen with the music before the chapter starts. Finally, be aware that this port requires a CPU with AVX instructions, for God knows whatever reasons.

Let's talk about the real issue of this port: the controls.

They all suck. Forget about the mouse and keyboard, this game wasn't designed around these devices. What about the analog stick of the default pad settings? It barely manages to do the job. The ONLY way to appreciate Flower is to play with a Sixaxis (gyroscope) controller, which these days means a DualShock 4. Since the gyro is not supported by XInput, you'll have to use the DS4 through its barebone "native" DInput driver (no Big Picture mode, no DS4Windows, no HidGuardian).

When you finally get the DS4 to work, and if you're familiar with the PS3 version, you quickly realize that the "native" driver doesn't work great either. The gyro sensibility is too high and, worst of all, the analog triggers are recognized as simple digital buttons, which means instant full speed instead of progressive acceleration, making the game tedious at best. And when you turn around, the landscape stays basically upright, while it was banking in the original (Afterburner style).

This port lacks complete polish. To this day, not a single patch has been released and I doubt we will ever see one. I hope Journey will not suffer the same mess, but I have no trust in the publisher. Today, I've just lost 5 bucks.

Flower deserved better on PC. Score: 2/10.

For reference: <https://psnprofiles.com/trophies/69-flower/Ryusennin>. For its price? Maybe. It's not challenging, fast it turns into building just for sake of building. It's too Easy. Only takes time due to slow technical discoveries (it generally just takes time) and without this unlocks you cannot finish game. Time is only real obstacle in this game.
